

LITERACY - Kindergarten

LEARNING STANDARDS

What to Watch For

Your Kindergarten Child Will:

- Identify the names and sounds of the letters of the alphabet.
 - Read 10 - 30 commonly used words.
 - Learn new vocabulary words through instruction and stories read aloud. Show that they understand the new words by using them when talking.
 - Respond to stories that have been read to them by talking, drawing or writing about them.
 - Read aloud from easy (emergent) readers and simple text. (See The way I go to school story.)
 - Use words to describe people, places, things, location, size, color, shape, direction, and actions.
 - Correctly write many letters and some simple words including their name.
 - Follow a writing process that includes planning, writing and completing pieces of writing.
- Point out words everywhere – on signs, cereal boxes, advertisements, store names. Practice reading these labels with your child.
 - Talk about words and their meanings.
 - Ask your child to tell you about the pictures he or she draws and recognize their attempts at writing letters, words and sentences.
 - Ask your child what he or she is reading and writing in school.
 - Encourage your child to draw and write by making crayons, pencils, markers and paper available.
 - Ask your child to write their name or words on the pictures they draw.

Following is an example of a book that a kindergarten child should be able to read by the end of kindergarten.

The way I go to school

From Rigby PM Collection

I go to school.

I go to school in a car.

I go to school in a taxi.

I go to school in a bus.

What You Can Do:

- Read and read and read to your child! Talk about what you're reading.
- Listen to and talk with your child about books they are looking at, pretending to read or actually reading, such as alphabet, counting and label books.
- Ask about and talk with your child about the books his or her teacher reads in school each day.

Questions to Ask Your Child:

- How do you go to school?
- How did the kids in this story go to school?
- Have you ever been in a taxi? (If yes tell about it.)
