

LITERACY - Pre-kindergarten

LEARNING STANDARDS

What to Watch For

Your Pre-kindergarten Child Will:

- Listen with understanding to stories, directions and conversations.
- Learn new words daily to describe people, places, things, location, size, color, shape, direction and actions.
- Retell stories told or read aloud by talking or drawing during play.
- Recognize different sounds in rhymes and familiar words.
- Use scribbles, shapes and pictures to show their thoughts or ideas.
- Identify the names of some letters of the alphabet, especially those in his or her own name.
- Begin to copy or write his or her own name.

What You Can Do:

- Talk with children about their actions, thoughts and ideas during everyday activities.
- Play with rhymes and sing songs.
- Talk about new words and their meanings.
- Read to your child every day and talk to them about the pictures and the stories.

- Support your child's interest in scribbles and pretend writing. Provide writing materials in the home such as paper, pencils, crayons and markers.
- Ask your child to tell you about the pictures they draw and recognize their attempts at writing letters and words.
- Point out the letters of your child's name everywhere: on signs, advertisements and cereal boxes.

Here are some books that pre-kindergarten children enjoy:

- Kissing Hand, Audrey Penn
- Brown Bear, Brown Bear, What Do You See?, Bill Martin
- Quick as a Cricket, Audrey Wood
- Goodnight Moon, Margaret Wise Brown
- Snowy Day, Ezra Jack Keats
- Owl Babies, Martin Waddell

Questions to Ask Your Child:

- What do you think will happen in the story?
- What do you like about this story?
- Could you explain your idea?
- Why do you think that?
